

Victim's Services

As a victim you have the right to:

- Be treated with fairness, respect, and dignity and to be free from intimidation, harassment, or abuse throughout the criminal justice process, and informed of the constitutional rights provided by statute
- Be reasonably informed when the accused or convicted person is arrested, released from custody, or has escaped
- Be informed of and present at any criminal proceedings which are disposed of the charges where the defendant has the right to be present
- Be reasonably informed of and be allowed to submit either a written or oral statement at all hearings affecting bond or jail
- Be heard at any proceeding involving a post-arrest decision, a plea, or sentencing
- Be reasonably protected from the accused or persons acting on his behalf throughout the criminal justice process
- Confer with the prosecution, after the crime has been charged, before the trial or before any disposition and informed of the disposition
- Have reasonable access after the conclusion of the criminal investigation to all documents relating to the crime before court
- Receive prompt and full restitution from the persons convicted of the criminal conduct that caused the loss or injury

- Be informed of any proceeding when any post-conviction action is being considered and be present at any post-conviction release decision
- A reasonable disposition and prompt and final conclusion of the case
