The City of York is compromised of a City Council to include the Mayor and six Council Members. Each Council Member represents a different district within the city and is voted into their position by their district.

The City oversees three Boards which include:

- 1. The Board of Zoning Appeals
- 2. The Board of Architectural Review
- 3. Construction Board of Adjustment & Appeals

There are two Commissions that review issues and propose regulations to the City Council:

- 1. The Tree Commission
- 2. The Planning Commission
